Public: Alyssa Petteys, Jett Collura

After roll call, the pledge of allegiance the following business was conducted:

AQUATIC INVASIVE SPECIES

The Aquatic Invasive Species Meeting was tabled until July 9, 2015 at 7:00PM. This will be announced in the Pennysaver to make public aware that the Town Board will be accepting comments at that time.

BOARD WORKSHOP

The Board Workshop on Comp Plan was tabled until July 16, 2015 at 4:30PM. The Town Board strongly feels that Jim Martin's knowledge would be beneficial. They would like him to be able to attend this meeting.

JULY 4TH PARADE

The July 4th Parade float will not be available for the Town of Corinth this year. Supervisor Lucia asked the board if they had any other ideas of what could be used in its place. Councilman Collura said that a trailer could be used and Supervisor Lucia stated that they could retain hay bales to be used on the trailer. Supervisor Lucia said he will look into getting a trailer to use.

EMS BUILDING

The Corinth Emergency Squad building had a pump give way that caused the sewer to back up this past weekend.

Supervisor Lucia said that he really appreciates that Barney Gille, Mark Deuel and Zen Baudoux who spent a lot of time and effort cleaning up the building. Supervisor Lucia also said the pump should be fixed as soon as possible.

FUN DAY

The Corinth Fun Day is still scheduled for July 15, 2015 4-7PM with a rain date of July 16, 2015. There will be one more meeting before Corinth Fun Day.

PLAYGROUND

Supervisor Lucia stated he met with Craig Faulkenbury and Mayor Morreale to discuss the playground not being open five days a week. Craig Faulkenbury states he has taken care of this issue.

ANIMAL CONTROL

Supervisor Lucia wanted to make the board aware of Delbert Clothier, ACO, being hospitalized this past week. Supervisor Lucia also told the board that Deputy ACO, Alicia Floud's son, Alex also suffered trauma. He was riding his bike and got hit by a car this past week. Supervisor Lucia requested that both be kept in our prayers.

CERTIFICATE

Supervisor Lucia thanked Councilman Collura for completing the Emergency Management Training. Supervisor Lucia also told Councilman Collura he will put the certificate in his personnel file to be kept on record.

THANK YOU SPECIAL OLYMPICS

Special Olympics

Dear Town Of,

Thank you so much for your generous gift of $66.00 on June 1, 2015.

Caring friends like you are very important to us. Your support helps us reach out to more individuals with intellectual disabilities who want to participate in our life-changing sports training and competitions.

Your ongoing commitment to Special Olympics is an inspiration and makes a huge difference in the lives of athletes and their families in New York and around the world.

We will continue to update you on our progress and hope to see you at one of our upcoming competitions.

Gratefully,

Neal J. Johnson
