Whereas in eighteen hundred and eighteen (1818) this mountain community on the mighty Hudson River, began its existence, separating from the Town of Hadley; and

Whereas; on April 20th of 1818, President James Monroe, signed the bill establishing the Town of Corinth. and

Whereas a name had to be decided for this new town. The meeting was held at the residence of Washington Chapman, at Chapman's Corners, later to become South Corinth. Mrs. Chapman turned to her Bible and open it to the Corinthians, and said, there it is; it shall be called Corinth; and

Whereas we as the Town Board of Corinth, New York, Saratoga County, United States of America, declare 2018 as the year of our Bicentennial Celebration and we ask the Corinth Village Board to pass a resolution declaring the Town Bicentennial along with accepting this invitation to join us in this celebration; and

Whereas The Town of Corinth, continues its commitment to enhancing the quality of life of its citizens and guests, ensuring a positive recreational, business and educational climate.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we will also send a copy of this resolution and an invitation to join in this year-long celebration, to every organization, club, Board in the Town and Village of Corinth, and to encourage State, County, and Local Officials, as well as civic, social and educational organizations to conduct ceremonies and programs with us as we reaffirm our commitment as citizens of this great town.
