Rail Cars

Attorney Reichenbach spoke about the situation of the rail cars on the Town of Corinth tracks.

Councilman Collura said he wanted to make sure the Town was protected. He also said that maybe the Highway Department might want the stone that is in the rail cars.

EMS

Matt Fogarty told the board that #2051 is enroute to Iowa. He said the fly car will soon be up and running and therefore the old fly car can be refurbished for a department in the Town or sold to recoup some of the money spent for the new one.

JOBS

Councilman Halliday explained to the board what furloughing a person meant. It was decided that this would be discussed in Executive Session.

Town Board

Councilman Collura

Councilman Collura said he thought that the County should not foreclose on any property or have tax sale on any property during this time. Supervisor Lucia told him that they have already canceled the tax sale.

Councilman Collura said he thought during this bad time all Overtime should be stopped. It was a consensus of the board that this be done, and the Supervisor's office send a memo to each department.

Councilman Byrnes

Councilman Byrnes stated that Washington County is offering face masks made out of cotton and he was wondering if Saratoga County was going to be doing this. Supervisor Lucia said that he had a delivery from Saratoga County today of face masks and hand sanitizer to be given out. Supervisor Lucia said they would given to the seniors first such as Adam Lawrence and the Senior Center.

Councilman Byrnes said the food Pantry is in need of donations. Any donation can be made to the Corinth Community of Churches, PO Box 45, Corinth, N Y. Councilman Byrnes asked that this be placed on the Town website.

Town Clerk

Town Clerk Farr said she wanted to thank Robin Schumacher, Dean, Michelle, Biscuits Bakery and Patti Saunders for the signs that were purchased for the 2020 Seniors.

Councilman Halliday

Nothing

Councilman Butler

Nothing

Councilman Byrnes said he wanted to thank Rebecca Anderson Robarge for making the masks.

Supervisor Lucia told the board that the Building Department is still working with the campgrounds.
